- 2. In this Regulation,
  - “suitable work” means work that,

    - (b) when possible, restores a worker’s pre-injury earnings.

PART II

Requirements — employer

- 3. The employer of an injured worker shall co-operate in the early and safe return to work of the worker in accordance with the following requirements:
  - 1. The employer shall contact the worker as soon as possible after the injury occurs and shall maintain appropriate communication throughout the period of the worker’s recovery and impairment.
  - 2. The employer shall attempt to provide suitable work that is available.
  - 3. The employer shall give the Board such information as the Board may request concerning the worker’s return to work.

  - 1. The worker shall contact the employer as soon as possible after the injury occurs and shall maintain appropriate communication throughout the period of the worker’s recovery and impairment.
  - 2. The worker shall assist the employer, as may be required or requested, to identify suitable work that is available.
  - 3. The worker shall give the Board such information as the Board may request concerning the worker’s return to work.

PART III

(2) Subsection (1) applies in addition to subsection 41 (3) of the Act.

(3) When the Board makes a determination under subsection (1) or under subsection 41 (3) of the Act, it shall promptly give the worker and employer written notice of the determination.

Employer, requirements concerning re-employment

7. (1) The employer shall comply with the following requirements concerning the re-employment of a worker:

1. The employer shall comply with the requirements of Part IV or Part V, as the case may be.

(2) Paragraph 2 of subsection (1) does not require the employer to accommodate the workplace to the needs of the worker if the employer does not control the workplace.

Presumption, non-fulfilment of employer's obligations

8. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the employer is presumed not to have fulfilled the employer's obligations under this Regulation if the employer re-employs the worker in accordance with this Regulation and then terminates the worker's employment within six months after the date on which the worker was re-employed.

(2) In the case of re-employment at a construction project in accordance with this Regulation, the employer is presumed not to have fulfilled the employer's obligations under this Regulation in each of the following circumstances:
