

Health Care: Guidance for Health and Safety

Employer Responsibilities:

If you find out a worker has been exposed to COVID-19 at work, or a related claim has been filed with the WSIB, make sure to notify the ministry and your workplace joint health and safety committee, health and safety representative and trade union. Call the ministry's Health and Safety Contact Centre at 1-877-202-0008.

Keep them safe:

- Food services staff in health care
- Long-term care staff
- Community laboratory and specimen collection centre staff
- Primary care providers
- Acute care providers
- Dental offices
- Home care and community services
- Housekeeping and laundry employees in healthcare
- Recreational workers in healthcare
- Administration in healthcare
- Paramedics

Use virtual or phone appointments where possible

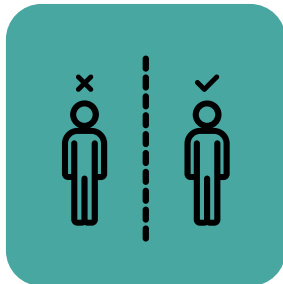

Don't share equipment where possible

Use plexiglass barriers

Voice your concerns

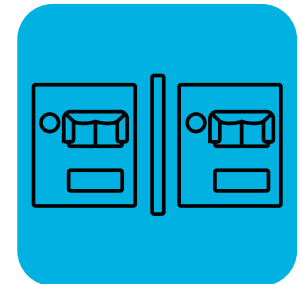

Isolate anyone who screens positive

Report probable and confirmed cases to your supervisor

Train staff on proper use of personal protective equipment

Use markings, dividers or furniture to separate people
