Accessibility Ecosystem

From obligation to participation

The AODA Accessibility Ecosystem is like a ship in an unpredictable and changing global and technical context. The Laws provide the compass, the Trusted Authority steers the course, and the community uses the community hub to provide the ideas, tools and resources needed to make the journey.

Culture change

innovation

ONTARIO COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY HUB

Needed Adjustments

Qualifying innovative methods

Responding to changes in context

TRUSTED AUTHORITY

Retiring outdated methods

Ensuring tools and resources are available

How To Achieve It

Training

Community feedback and monitoring

Opportunities

Measures that bring about long-term culture change

What Must Be Achieved

Pooled resources and tools

Regulating overall process

ACCESSIBILITY LAW

Innovative approaches to addressing barriers

Research and guidance

Functional accessibility requirements that remain constant

Barriers